ENGAGEMENT OF POPULAR OGDEN COUPLE IS ANNOUNCED

MISS VIOLET ANDERSON

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Anderson announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Violet Anderson, to Marcus Smith, the wedding to occur in the near future. Professor Smith is instructor in music at the Ogden High school, and the bride-to-be is a teacher in the Marriott school.

FIFTY ENTERTAINED TODAY

The engagement of one of Ogden's most charming young society belles was graciously announced this afternoon at the Berthana, where Mrs. James H. Spargo entertained fifty guests at a beautifully appointed 4 o'clock tea. Miss Pamela Spargo will be wedded in June to Nils Connell Eckbo.

The Berthana banquet room was attractively decorated for the announcement party and one long table was arranged in the shape of a letter "T" with lovely baskets of blue hydrangeas and pink roses tied with pink tulle and placed at intervals along the table. Corsage bouquets, under which were the dainty announcement cards, were laid at each guest's plate.

The event was one of the most artistically arranged affairs of the spring and of interest to a large number of friends of Miss Spargo and Mr. Eckbo, not only in Ogden, but throughout the state.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS

Royal Neighbors of America were entertained at cards Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edna Ingebretsen, 1978 Steele avenue. The color scheme was carried out in camp colors, purple and white.
